MEMORANDUM FOR COMMANDER, MAJOR SUBORDINATE COMMANDS, DISTRICT COMMANDS, FIELD OPERATING ACTIVITIES, AND LABORATORIES, ATTN: DIRECTOR\CHIEF, CONTRACTING DIVISION

SUBJECT: PARC Instruction 95-3, Authority to Perform Research and Development Using Grants and Cooperative Agreements Under 10 U.S.C. 2358

1. References:

a. SARD-PF memorandum with enclosures of 2 Dec 94, SAB (encl 1).

b. DD Form 2566, Sep 90, and instructions for its preparation (encl 2)

2. The ASA (RD&A), by reference 1.a., has authorized CECG/PARC USACE, to enter into grants and cooperative agreements to carry out various research and development projects under the authority of 10 U.S.C. 2358.

3. The purpose of this PARC Instruction is to provide information and guidance in the event that you are requested to perform research and development using grants and cooperative agreements under 10 U.S.C. 2358.

4. Requests for approval to enter into subject grants and cooperative agreements, coordinated with legal counsel, will be forwarded to CEPR. Note that authority to enter into "other transactions" or cooperative agreements using the authority of 10 U.S.C. 2371 require prior approval by SARDA. These requests should be forwarded to allow 14 working days for approval.

5. Reference 1.b. is provided to assist you in the necessary reporting requirement. Reports will be submitted to CEPR-O within 10 working days after award of a grant or cooperative agreement.

6. Divisions will distribute this PARC Instruction 95-3 to their respective districts. Districts and Laboratories will assure a copy is provided to their respective legal offices.
